

Welcome to the Vance minute. I'm Joe B. Wiles with the Public Affairs Office...

The Air Force Assistance Fund is an annual campaign that raises funds to help active duty Airmen and the surviving spouses of active duty and retired Airmen.

This year's special fund raising event will be a Color Race that kicks off at 11 a.m., Saturday, March 14th, in the Vance Club parking lot.

Along the 5K race route, volunteers will chuck colored powder on the runners, guaranteeing a gaggle of jogging artwork.

Our friends and neighbors in Enid and the surrounding area are invited to participate. For information and to enter, visit the Vance Air Force Base Facebook page and click the link to the 2015 AFAF Color Race.

Airman 1st Class Austin Wilson, from Peculiar, Missouri, is the March Airman of the Month at Vance. He is a staff technician with the 71st Medical Support Squadron.

Col. Clark Quinn, the 71st Flying Training Wing commander, notified Airman Wilson he was the winner, and presented him with a commander's coin.

And that's your Vance Minute... have a great Air Force day.
